KIDS QUE Information Page

1. AGE: age group: 6-12. The contestant official age is determined as of 4/1/2019.
2. PREPARATION, COOKING AND PRESENTATION: Kids Cook contestants must do the preparation, cooking and presentation. Parents are required to supervise/help with lighting the grill and are required to be in their child's cook area until fires are extinguished after finished product is turned in. Parents are asked not to help with anything else. CONTESTANTS ARE TO DO ALL THE COOKING.
3. HANDICAP PROVISION: Handicapped children will be allowed to do as much as they are able with some help from an assigned parent or guardian. Please note on entry form if a handicapped child is participating and what special arrangements need to be made.
4. All children will cook in a designated cooking area on a grill brought from home by the competitor. No grills will be provided. Grill may be powered by gas (propane), charcoal, wood, or pellet burner. Any other grill must be approved in advance.
5. Entries will be submitted to the judging area in numbered containers provided by the Festival.
6. Entrants are not required to slice or cut finished product for presentation. Judges will be equipped to slice the presentation at the judging table to accommodate portions for the number of judges participating after the overall appearance is judged.
7. Judging will be based on APPEARANCE, TASTE, TEXTURE/TENDERNESS. The KCBS will conduct judging and all decisions will be final. Judging ranges (scoring) are from nine (9), being the highest to two (2), being the lowest.
8. COOKS MEETING will be held at 9 am on Saturday. (It is mandatory that contestants attend this meeting to review rules, pick up turn-in containers and supplies. Failure to attend this meeting will result in a DQ (disqualified) and no refund will be given.

SUPPLIES PROVIDED – Competitors will cook pork loin. Approximately two pounds or 6 boneless pork loin chops will be provided the morning of the event to each competitor, after the Kids Que Cook meeting. Competitors only have to turn in two chops in the box. Any other pork cooked may be consumed by competitor, family or friends after the box has been submitted to the judging area. Competitors may turn in any size/ weight pork, which includes any number of pieces (ie: sliced, etc). Only what is submitted in the turn-in box is to be judged.

SUPPLIES NEEDED - Contestants must supply their own grill, seasonings, cooking utensils, and garnish to be used for the pork loin chop. All entries will have OPEN GARNISH and STUFFING IS ALLOWED.

ENTRY FORM - Entry fees ($25 per child) are required with submission of entry form. Entry form is also available on our web site. The entry fee will supply the contestant with meat, and awards for the competition.
